

DIVISION OF COMMUNICATIONS & LANGUAGES

ENGLISH AND LITERATURE

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE

This degree focuses on language and literature as forms of cultural expression with specific historical influences. Some of the courses focus on reading and writing about literary texts. Other courses for this major focus on genre studies and the structure of language. A third area of coursework emphasizes significant writers, literary works, and cultural movements that are most important to a particular time period. By completion of specific General Education courses, this program fulfills many of the requirements and foundation courses for transfer to Baccalaureate English and Literature related majors but does not fulfill all transfer requirements for specific Baccalaureate degree programs. (See a counselor for major preparation from specific four-year institutions.)

To acquire the Associate of Arts Degree in English and Literature, students must complete the required major courses below with a grade of "C" or better along with one of the following:

- RHC GE and Proficiency requirements
- CSU GE (California State University General Education Breadth)
- IGETC (Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum)
